Scholarships are granted annually. Notification letters are usually mailed by May 31.

DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

Funds are mailed to the school not the student, once enrollment for the semester is verified starting with the Fall Semester, (around August/September.)

The Alaska Baptist Foundation must receive proof of enrollment from the institution for both the Fall and Spring Semesters. Additionally, for the Spring Semester Documented Proof from the school identifying that a Minimum GPA of 2.5 is being maintained will be required. (An unofficial transcript from the school could meet this requirement.)

The Alaska Baptist Foundation reserves the right to revise scholarship policies, qualifications, and limit the number of scholarships subject to availability of funds from the earnings of the Trust.

The Fuhr Scholarship

This scholarship program is possible because of the generosity of the Fuhrs who were long-time members of First Baptist Church, Anchorage.

The earnings from the Trust created at their home going will continue to benefit Alaska Baptist students attending college until Jesus comes.
